

A Child's World Learning Center

Permission to Videotape/Photograph

Parents/guardians may sometimes be asked to participate in publicity to promote ACWLC, just to promote our center.

This is voluntary. Our support of our students is not impacted by this release.

Activities may include videotaping, recording and/or photographs that may be published, displayed on our website, social media via our Facebook page or publicity, publications.

ACWLC does not anticipate commercial use or sale of your name, picture, voice, verbal statements or portraits (video or still).

However, to the extent works described in this form result in any revenue, by signing this form you agree to waive any and all rights to any copyright interest in such works and royalties that may be paid.

This is a general release, ACWLC commits to checking in about specific posts and securing release through text or email to use specific images, videos, etc. whenever possible.

Please note this release does not have an end date but can be revoked in writing at any time.
